

Wendy Garner, CEO of POCHS, has a background in healthcare administration, strategy, logistics, revenue cycle management, contract negotiations, device-intensive procedures & program management, marketing/ advertising/ PR, scheduling, as well as staff management and development. She has a certified medical assistant license and hands-on experience with patients and clinical staff in clinics, surgery centers and hospitals with a combined 20 years in finance and healthcare administration. Wendy has been active with Capital Area Food Bank, Austin Pets Alive and Mobile Loaves and Fishes in the community through National Charity League and is a tribal member of The Comanche Nation. Point of Care Health Services holds a HUB (historically underutilized business) certification with the State of Texas.