MY PROFILE

I have always been a creative and passionate artist. From painting on a canvas and drawing, to sculpting and making my ideas come to life. I've been working towards this career years. I am determined and willing to take on bigger and better projects as time goes on. My motivation keeps me on track and seeing the potential I have in my work, and the progress I have made drives me to pursue my creative passion. I understand that I'll never stop learning and perfecting my skills will take time, but it's worth the wait for me and I'm ready to show you what I can do!
