Employment History

Camera Operator / Assistant Camera

February 2021 - Current

Became a full-time Camera Operator / Assistant Camera for various reality television shows around the United States.

My responsibilities include:

- Assembling and setting up camera, audio and gaffing equipment.
- Filming reality style "live" scenes as well as sit down interviews with high end talent.
- Understanding all aspects of the video production process in order to maintain high quality content.
- Ensuring all equipment is safe and clean at all times.

Media Manager / Assistant Camera, Wilma TV

August 2018 - March 2020

Wilma TV is a production company out of Burbank, CA who produces a television show titled, "Iron Resurrection" which is shot entirely in Johnson City, TX. My duties as Media Manager included:

- Ensuring all cameras were set up with proper lenses, media cards and audio attachments prior to shooting.
- Gathering fully shot media cards, ingesting them onto multiple harddrives and logging footage by scenes and characters.
- Assisting Camera Operators and Producers in setting up scenes.
- Sending out all shot footage to post-production in California via FedEx.

Media Manager, Various Companies

June 2017 - August 2018

Acted as an independent contractor in the role of Media Manager for various reality television / internet shows. These shows include:

- My 600LB Life
- My 600LB Life: Where Are They Now?
- Texicanas
- Returning the Favor with Mike Rowe
