

Paul Jensen Bio

Paul Jensen currently serves as a producer with Lucky #8 Films.

A Naval Academy graduate and former Navy pilot, Paul deployed worldwide in support of the Global War on Terror. He recently retired from the Navy Reserves, most recently serving as Director for Navy Emergency Preparedness for FEMA Region 6, holding the rank of Captain.

Beyond his service to country, Paul has worked in media production after earning a master's degree from the USC School of Cinematic Arts. He co-founded Best Medicine Productions, where he produced films such as Natural Selection, Better Watch Out, and Scenic Route.

He later served as Executive Director of the Texas Media Production Alliance (TXMPA), where he led statewide advocacy efforts that expanded Texas' film and television incentives by 525%.

Now back in production full-time with Lucky #8 Films, Paul most recently produced the sports documentary Luv Ya Bum!, which premiered at the 2025 SXSW Film Festival. He lives in Austin, Texas, and spends weekends reading scripts and chauffeuring his three kids.
