

THE HUB AT FATE STATION

Bright, quiet co-working space located at 110 Greenhill Ln. in Fate's creative district. Perfect for meetings, production, and collaboration in a private, inspiring space.

About the Studio

The Hub at Fate third-floor space sits in the heart of Fate's creative and tech district, housing design studios, production artists, and entertainment agencies — a vibrant neighborhood perfect for collaboration and creative work. The Hub units are quiet, bright, and private, tucked away from street noise — ideal for meetings, brainstorming sessions, and production days.

The Hub at Fate Station:

- Perfect for meetings, workshops, or small team sessions (10–45 people)
- Large windows with natural light
- Comfortable, collaborative layout
- Fully equipped production studio for podcasting/video
- Backdrop wall with depth for full-body/wide shots
- Adjustable lighting
- Blackout curtains for full light control
- Quiet & private environment for shooting or focused work

Whether you need a meeting space or a production lab, this location offers flexibility, style, and convenience — right in downtown Fate.