WORDS FROM THE SET

This was the first time he & I had the pleasure of working alongside one another. I had not known Samson before this project, but he has now become a close friend, ally and confidant. His talent is enormous and what he contributed to "FLUXX" goes beyond words and I am eternally grateful. Filmmaking is not for the faint of heart... Samson handles all of this with ease and has the calming presence of a seasoned pro.

His creativity shines within every single frame of the film. He commands a crew with determination and they all respect his clear vision. We had one day to complete the set for one of the most important scenes in the film. When I saw what the Production Designer put together, I realized it did not complement the tone we were trying to achieve with this chaotic scene. There were so many moving pieces — furniture, art, set dressing — and no time to get it all done. The panic set in for me and Samson felt that immediately. He pulled me aside and gave me his plan of attack, which he formulated right there on the spot. Within 24 hours he came up with an entirely different look for the room. A new idea from scratch. An idea the team was working on for weeks.

The pieces Samson ended up finding made the entire look of the scene and made the overall feeling even better than I originally imagined. The entire crew loved working with him. Samson's creativity and passion comes across vividly in all of his work, whether that's Art Directing or Hosting his Show. I can't wait to see what the future has in store for this brilliant Artist.

BRENDAN MURPHY · PRODUCER / DIRECTOR · LIONSGATE | ALTERED STATE ENTERTAINMENT · FLUXX

Hey what a weekend. I can't think of someone I worked with the last 15 years that is so motivated, has energy, is so gentle and has everything under control on set. It was really good and you're definitely my first choice if I'm looking for AD / Producing.
