

David McLorren

Award-Winning Multi-Instrumentalist | Artist | Producer
Founder of REETHYM® Productions

With 10 solo albums, numerous singles, and a long list of collaborations and production credits, David McLorren has established himself as a creative force with a sound all his own—one he calls “Something a little different.”

A gifted multi-instrumentalist and producer, David’s work crosses genres with ease, blending Smooth Jazz, R&B, Gospel, Hip Hop, and more. He has collaborated with renowned artists such as Sam Hankins, Joyce Spencer, Rod Williams, Audley Reid, Gary Fuston, and others—each project showcasing his distinct approach to melody, rhythm, and groove.

Drawing inspiration from musical icons like Dave Brubeck, Bob Marley, Bill Withers, and Sting, David’s music reflects both technical mastery and emotional depth. His journey began in the early 1990s reggae scene, later expanding into roles as a choir director, church musician, and versatile creative professional.

Beyond performance, David is a sound engineer, producer, songwriter, vocalist, graphic designer, and photographer—a true creative who lives by his own words: “I love and do all things creative.”

David’s music is available worldwide on all major digital platforms and at www.davidmclorren.com.

For press inquiries, interviews, or bookings:

 info@davidmclorren.com

 www.davidmclorren.com

DM
davidmclorren